

U.S. Agricultural Trade

Improved outlook for grains, cotton & horticulture products and higher oilseed prices raise exports in 2004, despite BSE-related losses for beef and cattle. With imports up $3.8 billion, the trade surplus falls to $9.5 billion.

